

FIRST BAPTIST LOGAN

Lord's Day November 30th, 2025

Welcome & Announcements

Prelude Meditation, Prayer, and Confession

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Call to Worship Psalm 111

⁺Processional Hymn Nº 175

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

First Sunday of Advent HOPE

Anticipation and Expectation - Isaiah 9:2-7
Relationship is the key to everlasting peace, joy, and love. The wages of sin is death, separation from lasting peace, joy, and love found in relationship; moreover, and most importantly eternal separation from God. Advent looks forward to our celebrating Christ's birth and His eventual return and consummation of all things. Hope is where we find encouragement in uncertain times, awaiting Jesus. We light the first Advent candle of hope, reminding us of the light of Christ coming into a world of darkness. Our Hope calls on us to center our thoughts, prayers, and hearts on God's promises as we look forward to the joy of Christmas.

Holy, Acceptable unto God (True Blessedness)

"As he said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!" But he said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!""

Luke 11:27,28

This morning I shall invite your attention, first, for a little time, to a blessedness which is not to be denied—blessed was that holy woman who bore the Savior. Secondly, in the text there is mention made of a blessedness which is to be preferred. When we have spoken upon this theme, we shall have something to say of that blessedness as one which is now to be enjoyed. My prayer shall be—and I hope yours will be the same—that we may enjoy that blessedness this very morning and throughout all the rest of our lives. I see the Redeemer's outstretched hands as He pronounces this benediction upon you at this hour—"Blessed are those who hear the Word of God and keep it!" Divine Beatitude, be you fulfilled in each of us! ~ C.H. Spurgeon (Sermon 1920)
